1.3. Provider Default

In the event that New England College is unable to deliver your course in full, you will be offered a refund of all the course money you have paid to date. The refund will be paid to you within 2 weeks of the day on which the course ceased being provided. Alternatively, you may be offered enrolment in an approved course offered by the College, at no extra cost to you. You have the right to choose whether you would prefer a refund of course fees, or to accept a place in another course. If you choose placement in another course, we will ask you to sign a document to indicate that you accept the placement.

In the unlikely event of a provider not being able to continue to offer courses to students, students studying in Australian are protected under a Tuition Protection Scheme (TPS). Under this scheme students will be offered an alternate provider to study the same course/qualification or given a refund of unused tuition fees. The TPS Director may recover from a provider as a debt, the amount equal to the amount paid for a student under the TPS.

NEC must notify DIISTRE and the TPS Director within 3 business days if we default and notify students in writing.

1.5. Alternative Course Offer

New England College may arrange for another course, or part of a course, to be provided to students at no (extra) cost to the student as an alternative to refunding course money. Where the student agrees to this arrangement, New England College will not be liable to refund the money owed for the original enrolment.

This policy on the refund of tuition fees constitutes a written agreement between NEC and the international student for the purposes of ESOS Act 2000 as amended in 2015, ESOS Regulations 2001 and the National Code 2018. This agreement is formed when a student signs his or her acceptance form and pays the program deposit.

1.6. Deferral of Studies

Students who wish to defer their course commencement date must notify NEC in writing prior to the course commencement date. A new Offer letter will be issued advising the student of their new course commencement date. (NOTE: A place may only be deferred for up to 6 calendar months) Where a course deferral is granted, any monies paid to accept the original course will be transferred as a deposit for the deferred course.
